A CITY AMONG MOUNTAINS

What a "Telegram" Man Saw in Mt. Airy.

THE C. F. AND Y. V. RAILROAD

A Boon to the "Granite City"—Is it a Better Market Than Greensboro? Happiest Man "On the Hill."

Any one who has not been around the C. F. & Y. V. depot and witnessed the unloading of express and freight, has no idea what an enormous amount of country produce Mt. Airy is sending out by that road at present. Crates on crates of cabbage, apples and chickens are piled on the cars for this and other markets. Charleston, Columbia, Charlotte, Durham and Goldsboro and other places that are situated, in the trucking districts, daily receive country products from that city among the mountains.

It was my pleasure to spend one day last week at Mt. Airy and I was surprised at the streams of wagons that come pouring in town all day and night, for that matter, for many came during the night in order to put the first goods on the market the next day. Farmers from a distance of thirty, forty and fifty miles, bring their products into the Mt. Airy markets. One reason why they do this, I was told, is that they can buy goods cheaper at that place than in Greensboro, Winston or Danville. This causes a great many who live around those places to travel their supplies over the mountains to the terminus of the C. F. & Y. V. road.

With the exception of this and the stone quarry business, Mt. Airy might be called a hard town. It is considered primarily a tobacco town, but the majority of the tobacco dealers have closed down. They continued to lose money until they were driven into different occupations, and one of the biggest dealers became so hard up that he resorted to editing a newspaper. A few tobacco firms, however continue to do a big business, and the price paid for the leaf compares favorably with other markets.

While in town I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. J. V. Jenkins, the happiest and most industrious man in town. Mr. Jenkins has always been considered a hustler, and if you will call at his store he will explain why he is so happy. By the way, after seeing a copy of THE TELEGRAM, Mr. Jenkins decided that his display of newspapers would not be complete without this paper.

He has agreed to handle THE EVENING TELEGRAM in Mt. Airy, and parties desiring a copy or wishing to subscribe will please call at J. D. Jenkins Book store.

The little city of Mount Airy is not on a boom now, but it is situated in the heart of the country that would make any town prosperous. We shall expect to hear from there in a few years. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

Hunting A Drink--Found Fire.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning a man who thought he knew "the ropes" in the "meadow" went to a house where he used to quench his thirst to get a drink. In the exodus from this quarter the house had been vacated. He went up stairs and found the building to be on fire.

He reported the matter to Officers Scott and Pearce, who finding only a small blaze quickly and easily extinguished the flames without calling out the fire company. The building is the property of W. D. McAdoo, and there is little damage from the fire. Cause unknown.

Twenty Dollars Stolen.

The house of Mr. George Dick was burglarized last night while the family were at church, by breaking a window. Two small toy savings banks in which the children had been depositing money, were stolen. One of them contained about eight dollars and the other one about twelve.

Officers Scott and Pearce went to work on the case with only a slight clue and worked up a pretty strong case against Mr. Dick's cook. Ida Green. She has been arrested and now languishes in limbo awaiting a preliminary trial. It is understood that Ida desires to tell where the money is.

He Appreciates It.

Ye local may be pardoned for copying the following complimentary notice from the Danbury Reporter:

The excellent Greensboro Telegram is to be highly congratulated on securing Mr. Robt. M. Phillips as city editor. He is an all-round newspaper man of genuine ability, and his courtesy and fair dealing must bring to the Telegram patronage that under other circumstances it could not enjoy.

WHEELED IT TO WINSTON.

Three Young Men Made the Trip on Bicycles Yesterday.

About 7:30 yesterday morning Will McAdoo, R. H. DeButts and R. B. Temple mounted their wheels and pulled out for the Twin-City. The roads were a little rough and bumpy after the recent rain, but after mending a puncture and attending to a breakfast for one of the party at Kernersville, they reached Winston in time for dinner.

In the afternoon they boarded the train, we suppose in order to avoid punctures and supper on the road. At Pomona two of them, McAdoo and DeButts, again mounted their bikes and reached the city only eight minutes behind the train. Temple finished the trip on the train saying that the morning trip satisfied him with wheeling for one day.

THE REAPER REAPING.

Mr. M. L. Coble Crossed the Dark River Last Night.

At 10:30 last night, Mr. M. L. Coble, who has been conducting a barber business at the McAdoo, died at his home on North Greene street. He was confined to his room about a week with a heart trouble before the grim messenger came.

Mr. Coble was about 30 years old, a native of Randolph county, and had lived in Greensboro several years. He leaves a wife and one child. His life was insured for one thousand dollars in the Golden Chain, which sum will go to his wife and child.

The remains will be laid to rest in Green Hill cemetery tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

ONLY ONE DRUNK.

A Quiet Saturday Night and Sunday in the City and the "Meadow."

Saturday night and yesterday was unusually quiet in police circles. Little or no "business" fell into their hands or was picked up in their rounds. A policeman tells us that only one arrest was made, a man named Evans. He drank too much of the "reeking red" and a kind-hearted officer took him in and properly cared for him.

And the "Meadow!" Why, bless you, all was as calm and serene in the "meadow" as a May morning all day yesterday. All the "dizzy denizens of the dell" have dispersed, and whether they are wandering or not, all law abiding citizens feel better.

And Still Another.

Mr. J. Giles Foushee, who recently moved his family from Gulf to this city, mention of which was made in these colums, this morning awarded the contract for a handsome residence to be erected on North Elm street, between the Causey lot and Cobb place. Mr. A. F. Brooks is the contractor, and the work will begin this week.

Greensboro extends a hearty welcome to these excellent people and to all like them who decide to pitch their tents in "the best town in the State."

The Weekly Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserve, decrease, $3,897,675; loans, decrease, $2,728,300; specie, increase, $66,400; legal tender, decrease, $6,614,700; deposits, increase $10,602,500; circulotion, increase, $607,200. The banks now hold $15,997,500 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

DOWN WITH THE WAR LORD

Police Unearth a Plot to Dethrone the Emperor

DETAILS BEING CAREFULLY KEPT

Members of Prominent Families and University Professors are Said to be Involved in the Plot.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—The Prussian police are on track of a powerful anti-dynastic movement in the South German states. The organization includes among its numbers many members of the best families. Two notable university professors are also understood to be involved in the plot. The Berlin authorities are doing their utmost to keep the matter secret.

LOCOMOTIVE BLOWS UP A TRAIN.

Cars Derailed and Engineer Killed by the Explosion.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HARRISBURG, Penn., Sept. 27.—The boiler of a locomotive attached to the northern express, on the Northern Central division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, exploded early this morning while running near Georgetown. E. B. Mitchell of this city, the engineer, was instantly killed and John R. Cawley, the fireman, was so badly scalded that he will die. Both men were hurled many feet by the explosion. All of the cars were derailed except the last sleeper but no one of the passengers was injured though they were considerably shaken up.

THREE CUBAN EXPEDITIONS.

Landed by the Ship that is the Alabama of the Insurgent Cause.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 27. — It is now certainly known that the steamer Sommers N. Smith landed at least three expeditions of men, arms and ammunitions for the Cubans during her voyage from Mobile to this port. The expeditions were all landed without serious mishap, though nearly captured by the gunboat Helena.

DROPPED TO THEIR DEATH.

Elevator Cable Precipitates Three Men to the Bottom of the Shaft.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The breaking of an elevator cable this morning dropped Charles Wilson, Richard White and William Hopkins, who were going up at the time, to the bottom of the shaft at the northwest land tunnel, a distance of one hundred feet. Wilson was killed instantly and the others were fatally injured.

A BIG PAPER TRUST

To Benefit the Producer Without Increasing the Cost to Consumers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The plan to consolidate the larger paper manufactories, which was talked of last year, has been revived. It is asserted that concessions have been made by all concerned. It is now probable that the consolidation will be effected.

At the local office of the Glenns Falls Paper Company it was said that a meeting of the most prominent manufacturers would be held here in about ten days, at which it was expected final action would be taken.

The purposes of the consideration are to control the output and to reduce the expenses of the operation. It was said this forenoon that the consolidation would benefit the producer, while it would not increase the prices consumers now pay.

A Mysterious Tragedy.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—Fishermen found the body of a richly dressed woman floating in the Ohio river today. On the body was found a gold watch engraved with the name "Ida Manners." The body was that of a woman of about 30 years old and handsome.

Cigarette King Dying.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 27.—Major Lewis Ginter, the cigarette king, is reported to be sinking rapidly today and his physicians say he can not recover. He is at his Westbrook estate.

Zuni chiefs in New Mexico have decided to abandon the practice of torturing.

Notices have been filed with the Territorial Secretary of Arizona of an intention to construct 3,000 miles of railroad.

MEANS PEACE, NOT WAR.

Navy Department Preparations Nothing Out of the Ordinary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The recent transfer of some 75 sailors from New York to San Francisco, the purchase of some service shells and a reported conference of naval militia officers with acting Secretary Roosevelt, at the Navy Department, have given rise to a suspicion of hostile intentions on the part of the Navy Department, which, it may be stated on the best authority, are not at all well-founded. As a matter of fact, there has been no conference of naval militia officers at the Navy Department or elsewhere. The commander of the Michigan naval militia is expected at the Navy Department Monday or Tuesday next. This mission is confined to reporting upon the possibility of taking the old Yantic up through the lake canals to Detroit. The supplies contracted for have been purchased by act of Congress in acordance with estimates submitted last year, and were in accordance with the usual routine; and finally, the Navy Department has been making no preparations at all, out of the ordinary run of business.

TIGER HAS ITS EYE ON GEORGE.

Tammany Afraid of a Stampede to the Single-Taxer.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—All eyes are focussed on Henry George. Should he accept the nomination of the silver wing of the New York Democracy tonight the wigwam may be forced to approve his candidacy and all of its campaign plans may be upset. Tammany leaders are afraid that a stampede to George may set in.

A Big Price on His Head.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The latest report from Guatamala states that a price of a hundred thousand dollars has been set upon the heads of Prospero Morales and Manuel Fuentes, the revolutionary leaders. The order was promulgated by President Bonos.

How to Prevent Accidental Fires.

1st. Keep the leaves swept from the valleys and gutters of your house—a spark may ignite them.

2nd. See that your flues are in safe and sound condition.

3d. Use metal vessels exclusively for taking up ashes and let them stand 24 hours before emptying, or empty on ground apart from any fence or building.

90 per cent. of dwelling house fires result from sparks on roof, defective flues, and taking up ashes in wooden vessels.

"LOVE IN A COTTAGE."

The return of the Jews to Palestine is a very harmless, poetic sort of fancy, but like love in a cottage and other things poetic, does not touch edges with the practical at a great many points.—Greensboro Telegram.

Away with such materialism and pessimism and skepticism. "Love in a cottage" is not only a dream of the poets; it is realization in this practical world and is the leaven that leavens the lump of human happiness. It prevents anarchy, envy and covetousness by creating a world of happiness and brightness. The editor of the Telegram is a bachelor, or we cannot judge him correctly from his writing.

The man who talks about "love in a cottage" as merely "poetic," needs a taste of it to make him a better citizen. —Raleigh News and Observer.

We are sedulously cultivating a reputation for turning the other cheek and so accept our contemporary's smite with all due meekness, and will try to be a "better citizen." We had never suspected that we were a hotbed of so many horrid sentiments, but then one must go away from home to hear the news.

We, too, say "away with such materialism and pessimism and skepticism," but the trouble is they take their rise from the conditions of modern life and not from our columns.

"Love in a cottage" is doubtless a very beautiful thing, and deserves the eulogy of the News and Observer, but it is also true that among those who are best able to form an estimate of the things that are worth the while, there is a growing disinclination to try it. So much is this the case that we have seen, within the year, a half dozen able papers, by keen observers, commenting on the fact. It is further noticeable that those who try love in a cottage are anxious to exchange it for love in a mansion as expeditiously as possible, and bend all their energies to that end. Our observation has been that a good many would willingly exchange for the mansion, with part of the affection left out.

It is easy to say "away" with this phase of the public mind but, like a certain much hackneyed ghost, it refuses to "away," avaunt, or otherwise "git." It is a stubborn fact in the life of today, and one that is giving sociologists a good deal of concern. Materialism it certainly is, but then American civilization is permeated and dominated by materialism, and the man who discovers the remedy for the materialism will cure most of the ills, social and political, that afflict us. It is not love, nor poetry, nor ideas that weigh with the mass, but the dollar. Literature, politics, society, marriage—the "jingling of the guinea" is shot through them all. Such observers as Edward Bok, Hamilton W. Mabie and Theodore Roosevelt agree in this opinion.

For what cannot be measured in so many grains of fine gold, the average American has a pretty thorough going contempt. What is immense, not what is good, what is useful, not what is beautiful, what is impressive, not what is intrisically worthy, these are the things for which men strive. Any one of us can pick out a dozen beautiful exceptions (the News and Observer will please be one of our dozen) to all this, but—they are exceptions. Whether this tendency is right or wrong is not our province to determine; we do know it is not pessimism, but fact.

That is practical which men find so under existing conditions; that which men and women try and are axious to escape, and that which others are less and less inclined to try, we submit "does not touch edges with the practical at a great many points."

THE Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Obsever says in reference to the Railroad Commission removals: "It is said quite openly that the Governor knows the case will go against him and that political reasons actuate him; in other words, that he thinks he and Senator Butler can make something out of it." We said quite openly so soon as the Governor's summons to appear was announced that he and Mr. Butler "thought they could make something out of it." We still believe that to be a correct diagnosis from the symptoms. The air of outraged patriotism of His Excellency was a little too pronounced to admit of any other construction. Whether the Governor believes there is anything in the case legally is difficult to conjecture; that he thought that there was politically the preliminary trumpet flourish showed conclusively.

IF experience goes for anything the leasing of the penitentiary will only substitute brutality for incompetency. When men who nave no one to defend them are let to men whose sole interest is to get as much as possible out of them there can be but one result. Our Populist friends have had a great deal to say about syndicates in the past. How do they relish this idea of turning the penitentiary over to a syndicate? Does this course meet with the approval of the thousands of honest and well-meaning Populists who voted for the present regime?

AMONG the forty young gentlemen who are standing for admission to the bar today, in Raleigh, we may not unreasonably expect to find a great deal of skepticism as to the arrival of prosperity, by the end of their first fiscal year.

IF that United States army lieutenant who jumped from a car going forty miles an hour and escaped with a scratch gets fired from the service, there are many aching voids on football elevens just his size.

GOVERNOR Russell is doubtless gratified that Otho Wilson "noted" the contents of his letter of removal. It did not strike the casual observer as as being a very noteworthy document.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad need not put on any airs over finding that a sprinkling of kerosene oil settles the dust on its line. Mr. Rockefeller can even use it to settle opinions.

Record Broken in Winston.

A Winston policeman told Evangelist Lee yesterday morning that not a single arrest for drunkenness was made in that city Saturday night. This, too in a city where heretofore the arrests for drunk and disorderly or drunk and down have averaged fifteen for Saturday night. This can be attributed to nothing else than the direct result of the tent meetings conducted by the evangelist, with the hearty cooperation and earnest support of the ministers of that city.

Will Run In Two Sections.

The biggest excursion of the season will pass here tomorrow about noon over the C. F. & Y. V. road from Bennettsville to Winston via Walnut Cove. The train will be composed of seventeen coaches and will be run in two section, and it is expected that all will be filled. Three more Norfolk and Western coaches were carried down this morning for use on this trip.

"THE WORD IS NOT BOUND."

Rev. R. F. Bumpass Last Night at West Market Street Church.

At West Market street church last night Rev. R. F. Bumpass preached an interesting, edifying and instructive sermon from Second Timothy, 2d chapter and last clause of the 9th verse: "But the word of God is not bound."

After a few interesting preliminaries the preacher showed the efforts which had been made by man to bind and destroy the Bible, and how futile they had been. In the last ninety years more copies of the Bible have been printed and distributed than in all the previous history of the world. One publishing house alone last year printed over three million copies in one hundred and twenty different languages.

When the revised version of the New Testament was issued an enterprising publishing house in Chicago had the whole of it, from the first of Matthew to the last of Romans, telegraphed from New York in order to get it there twenty-four hours ahead of steam transportation and have it published in a Sunday edition of a newspaper. All this shows the increased and increasing interest in the beautiful story of the Cross.

Infidels admire the beauty of the Bible story, recognize its power and influence on civilization, and build their homes where churches abound, instead of going where they will not be molested by the preaching and teaching of God's word.

Deathbed scenes of infidels and Christians were vividly and strikingly contrasted. Infidels realize, when death approaches, their awful mistake and doom. On the the other hand a Christian was never know to repent of living a Christian life.

WHITE AND BLUE.

In and Out of Hours at the State University.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 27.—The "Hill" is a lively place now, and there are more students in the University than ever before in the history of the institution. The largest number that ever registered here before was in 1850 when 451 matriculated. This high water mark was passed last Thursday and now there are about 456 regular students enrolled, and others are arriving daily. It is thought now that there will be at least 500 here by November 15th.

The 'Varsity football team is hard at work and somebody will have to do some hard playing if the "Hill" boys do not come off with the championship of the south this year. Eight games have already been arranged, four of which will be played here and four on other grounds. The games arranged are as follows:

Saturday, October 2d, A. and M. college, here.

Saturday, October 9th, Guilford college, here.

Tuesday, October 12th, Greensboro Athlethic Association, here.

Saturday, October 16th, Greensboro Athletic Association, at Greensboro.

Saturday, October 23d, Columbian, (D. C.,) here.

Saturday, October 30th, Virginia Poly. Inistitute, at Danville.

Saturday, Nov. 6th, University of Georgia, at Atlanta.

Tuesday, November 25th, University of Virginia, at Richmond.

Othe games will be arranged later in the season.

Last Friday night the Y. M. C. A. gave their annual reception to the "fresh," and a tremendous crowd was in attendance. Severall addresses were made and at the close refreshments were served to all. There are now 212 new men on the campus.

Next Friday evening the Baptist church here will give a reception to the Baptist students of the University. This reception was to have been held last Friday night but was postponed on account of the Y. M. C. A. reception.

A new Knights of Pythias lodge has been organized here with fifteen members. Several more will join at the next meeting.

The State Fair.

On account of the North Carolina State Agricultural Fair at Raleigh, the Southern Railway will sell tickets on October 16, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 23 at rate of one first-class limited fare for the round trip, plus 50cts. for one admission to the fair grounds. The fare from Greensboro will be $3.15.

On October 20th and 21st, special tickets will be sold from this city for $2.40, mhich also includes one admission to the fair grounds.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

W. W. Wood, went up to Winston today.

Rev. Dr. Carraway returned this morning from Reidsville.

T. F. Williamson, of Winston came in on the early train this morning.

P. H. Hanes. of Winston was in the city last night on his way to Atlanta.

L. E. Steere came down from Winston this morning and went to Salisbury.

Miss Josye Wood spent Sunday in Winston and will return home tonight.

John B. McCreary, of Smoak & McCreary, Winston, came down this morning.

W. D. Maxwell spent Sunday in Winston and returned to the city this morning.

Sam Taylor, representing Gilmer, Marler & Co., Winston was in the city this morning.

Odie Miller passed through this morning from Winston going to the eastern part of the State.

J. Giles Foushee, of the D. & C. spent Sunday here with his family and returned to Glendon this morning.

Shem Merideth, of J. L. Ludlow's engineering corps, Winston, was here this morning enroute to Statesville.

Adolphus Brooks and family, who have been spending some days at the residence of T. Brooks went to Ore Hill this morning.

John W. Fries, of Salem, was here last night returning to Washington to resume his duties as member of the monetary commission.

S. P. Kimbell, a prominent tobacco grower of Lemon Springs, Moore county, was here on his way to Danville this morning to sell tobacco. He speaks of stopping in Greensboro with the next lot.

Arnold Welles Players.

The Arnold Welles Players were here this morning going to Fayetteville where they play this week. The manager, Harry Arnold, tells us that he is arranging for a date in this city. The troupe is highly recommended. They were last week in Spartanburg, S. C., where they played to large audiences, and the Spartanburg papers speak in high praise of the show.

Ex-Senator Edmunds, president of the monetary commission, says the work of the commission is not in the interest of any class or section.

Fred Johnson, of Asheville, mistook his sister for a burglar and shot her. The wound was not serious.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The bunco picture men, who secure money for pictures that are never delivered, are operating in the state.

The Secretary of State grants license to the Boston Mutual Insurance Company to do business in this State. It is an assessment company.

Tobacco warehousemen in Raleigh say the cotton commission men are working against them by refusing to make advances to farmers unless they grow cotton.

A car-load of convicts, about 50, were sent from the penitentiary to the State farms on the Roanoke today, leaving the smallest number since its doors were opened, in 1890.

Two of the inmates of the Soldiers' Home had a quarrel and a fight a day or two ago. One struck the other and nearly broke his arm with a stick. Both were immediately dismissed.

Labor Commissioner Hamrick says that at the Cucktown copper mines the vegetation has been killed for a great distance and that suits for an immense sum for damages have been brought by residents.

Otho Wilson is in great good humor. He says he told his lawyers that he knew nothing about law, but if they would look after the legal matters involved in the case he would attend to the political ones.

Eugene G. Harrell is placed in charge of ceremonies, processions, etc., at the State Fair. He says the business men of Raleigh and most of the public officers have promised to decorate buildings during fair week.

Auditor Ayer says the task of the state board of pensions in ascertaining who of the 1200 new applicants for pensions are worthy and who are not is a hard one. It is found that one man who is drawing a pension has served a term in the penitentiary here. A man in Union county returns to the auditor a warrant for $64, saying no man in the county is entitled to such a warrant. The comment of the auditor is that many people are on the pension rolls who ought not to be there, while no doubt many who are really entitled to them are not on it.

THE MEETING IN WINSTON.

Evangelist Lee Still Making It Hot for Sinners and Whiskey.

The tent meeting conducted by Evangelist Lee, of this city, is still going on in Winston. Abundant success has crowned his efforts there. Large numbers have professed religion and a goodly number have already united with the different churches. The meeting will close tonight, for the white people, but the Evangelist will hold on for about four more days and preach for the colored people under the big tent.

An anti-saloon league was organized yesterday with over a thousand men pledged to work and vote for the abolition of the saloons in Winston.

A colored league will be organized at the close of the services for the colored people. A large number of colored voters have already handed in their names for membership.

Truly, it is getting to be a hot time in Winston for the sinner and the whiskey men especially.

Saturday Night's Show.

Another large crowd attended the show Saturday night and were well entertained by the program presented. Ed. McDade, in addition to his comedy work, performed a contortion act, which was very clever. Hannon and Grander did a laughable music act, playing several duets upon a number of instruments. David McDade demonstrated his ability in a novel balancing act, while the feat of the Mack Bros. was as good as is ever seen in a circus.

The comedies and sketches were funny and comical. The rendition of the Musical Fantasia, "Dance of the Goblins," by the orchestra, was superb. For the coming week the entertainments will be different from those of the past, a complete change being given nightly.

Notice to Footballists.

All members of last year's team and all new men who are candidates for places on this year's team, and any others who wish to play football, are requested to appear at the Fisher lot on North Elm, tomorrow afternoon, as active team work will begin.

Jack Hayden went to Burlington on the noon train.

D. H. Browder, the bookstore man of Winston was in the city today.

Paul C. Lindley and W. A. Cook, of Pomona, were in the city yesterday.

Whitt Stone continues to improve. He was able to go out on the porch yesterday.

Prof. W. J. Ramsey, of Durham, spent Sunday in the city, and went home today.

Sheriff Hoskins returned from Summerfield this morning accompanied by Mrs. Hoskins.

M. W. Watlington, of Liberty Store, who was for about four years clerk at the McAdoo, is in the city today.

If you see a couple of vanishing streaks it is only Daniel and Wingate training for the Salisbury races.

L. G. Cole, the Key West cheroot man of Durham, was here this morning. The Key West is a good smoke—we've tried it.

Rev. J. E. Gay, pastor of Centenary church, went to Kernersville this noon to assist Rev. W. M. Curtis in a revival meeting at that place.

Citizens should remember, for the benefit of wheelmen, that the place to throw glass is not in the middle of the street. Punctures cost a quarter a piece.

In our report of the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, in Saturday's paper "200 feet of curbing" should have read 2,000 feet, and in the list of absentees Aldermen "Fitz" should have been Phipps.

Evangelist Lee takes no stock in the divine healing and annointing business as taught by some nowadays. He says he believes in sending for the doctor when you are sick and asking God to bless the remedies used.

C. M. Vanstory returned yesterday from the Northern markets, and the result of his trip is to be seen in the magnificent and handsome display of clothing, etc., now being opened at their mammoth store on South Elm. Just drop in and take a look.

We are requested by the manager of the Academy of Music to announce that the Lillian Lewis company, who are advertised to appear here on Wednesday night, will hardly get here on account of the regulations and restrictions of travel made necessary further south by fever quarantine.

Greensboro has an old darkey that is a genius when it comes to sleeping. He drove his mules up street this morning and would wake up when the wagon jolted at a crossing, bow affably to an acquaintance on the sidewalk, take a nap until he reached the next crossing when he would repeat his performance at the last. He vanished around a corner sleeping peacefully as a cat in the sunshine.

A Chance for a Boy.

Are you a boy? Do you want a handsome suit of clothes free? Then read what Mathews, Chisholm & Stroud say in today's paper. Don't allow any other boy to get ahead of you; all of Greensboro will know that you are a hustler if you win. It will be easy to find people who take THE TELEGRAM—you can't throw a rock in a crowd without hitting a subscriber. All of them will treat you nicely when they know what you want; nobody refuses to help the boy who is helping himself. The suits are beauties. Pick out the one you want, then go to work and get it.

Boys, Listen!

Do you want to earn a suit of clothes for yourself, like the one we have advertised in this space? This is how you can do it: Commencing with today, Monday, Sept. 27, we will run this ad for six continuous days including Saturday, Oct. 2nd; and the boy bringing us the greatest number of this advertisement, neatly clipped from this paper, will be entitled to a $5 Golf combination suit of clothes, free of charge.

Understand these ads must be cut from the legitimate circulation of this paper; you need not try to get them from the publishers, they will not let you have them. Don't depend on your own paper for the ad, visit your neighbors and friends and get them to give you our ad from their paper.

Remember, it is a $5 suit of clothes for one week's work, so you must hustle. You can afford it.

The prize will be awarded Wednesday, Oct. 6th, at 3 o'clock p. m.
